About Summer

Summer concentrates her practice on tax-exempt financings, tax credits, economic development and governmental contracts at the federal, state and local levels, with a focus on affordable and workforce housing development. She regularly represents governmental entities in public-private partnerships in connection with 4% and 9% low-income housing tax credit transactions and workforce housing transactions involving public facility corporations and housing finance corporations. Her governmental clients range from large urban cities to rural municipalities and counties to housing authorities across Texas and her focus is always on helping her clients achieve their goals for those communities.

Additionally, Summer has experience advising purchasers, sellers, lenders, borrowers, landlords and tenants in various real estate transactions, including financings, acquisitions, dispositions and leases. She also has experience counseling clients on corporate governance, choice of entities and non-profit matters.

Prior to attending law school, Summer lived and owned a business in Buenos Aires, Argentina and is fluent in Spanish.
