

Rachel Strickland

Associate

London

T: +44.(0).20.7448.4210

F: +44.(0).20.7448.3124

E: rachel.strickland@bracewell.com

About Rachel

Rachel Strickland focuses her practice on corporate and commercial matters across the energy sector, including mergers and acquisitions, project development and joint ventures. She has worked on a range of complex, cross-border projects and transactions, acting for purchasers, sellers, borrowers and lenders.

Prior to joining Bracewell, Rachel was an associate in the London office of a large international law firm where she completed a secondment at bp.

Recent Notable Matters

bp – strategic agreement with the Libyan Investment Authority to enhance the partnership within Libya and focused on progression of the exploration project in the Ghadames and Sirte Basin for Blocks A, B and C*

Project company – design and engineering service contract for a new build nuclear power project in Eastern Europe*

UK power joint venture – project development contracts for a green hydrogen project in the UK*

Oil major – offtake agreement and funding arrangement to develop production of renewable drop-in fuels and circular chemicals*

Investment management firm – acquisition of a US$1.1billion portfolio of non-performing loans in the UAE*

* Work completed prior to Bracewell

Education

University of Law, Moorgate, M.Sc.
2022 – Distinction

University of Law, Exeter, Graduate Diploma in Law
2020 – Commendation

University of Exeter, B.A.
2018 – First Class Honours

Bar Admissions

Solicitor of the High Court of England and Wales